Major Land Resource Area 086B
Texas Blackland Prairie, Southern Part

Accessed: 10/12/2024

Ecological site keys

MLRA 86B

I. Uplands and terraces with none, or rare to very rare flooding
  A. Calcareous soils with subsoils high in calcium carbonate ... R086BY001TX – Chalky Ridge
  B. All others
    1 Sandy loam, loamy, or clay loam surface textures
      i. Loamy surface textures with abrupt change to clay subsoil ... R086BY002TX – Claypan Prairie
      ii. No claypan or abrupt texture change from surface to subsoil ... R086BY003TX – Clay Loam 2 Clay surface and subsoil textures
      i. Clayey soils with high shrink-swell and moderate to very severe erosion ... R086BY004TX – Eroded Blackland
      ii. Dark-colored, clayey soils with high shrink-swell capabilities ... R086BY005TX – Blackland II. Bottomlands and flood plains that are frequently to occasionally flooded
  A. Bottomlands and flood plains with loamy soils ... R086BY006TX – Loamy Bottomland
  B. Bottomlands and flood plains with clayey soils ... R086BY007TX – Clayey Bottomland